

AJS FNQ - PRIVACY POLICY CURRENT AT 20.02.2021

We are committed to protecting your privacy...

The AJS FNQ wish to reassure members and associates that the supply of your personal information is kept in the strictest confidence.

The society can manage your personal information responsibly and is best demonstrated by secure use of information, in Cairns over the last 39 years. This AJS FNQ's Privacy Policy is an overview of how we manage personal information.

Collection and Storage:

For AJS to function and provide quality events and services, it must collect personal, business, and corporate information from members and associates. This includes information such as names, addresses, and contact details. The AJS FNQ may undertake member and associate surveys, to determine a level of satisfaction, with the aim of continually improving our services and communication. The AJS FNQ records are secure and your personal, business, and corporate information remains confidential. The AJS FNQ also destroys any business and personal information which is no longer required.

Use of Personal Information:

The use of personal, business, and corporate information is used to provide events and services information both local and International Japan related.

Access to your Personal Information:

You are entitled to request information on what personal, business, and corporate information is stored by the AJS FNQ, subject to exceptions prescribed by law.

Enquiries:

If you have any enquiries about the use of your personal, business, and corporate information, please email info@ajsfnq.org.au.

If urgent, please telephone the current AJS FNQ President as listed on the AJSFNQ website.

Alternatively, you can write to AJS FNQ - Membership PO Box 2188, Cairns Mail Centre, Cairns Queensland 4870.
